The event experience starts on the page.

THE BRIEF

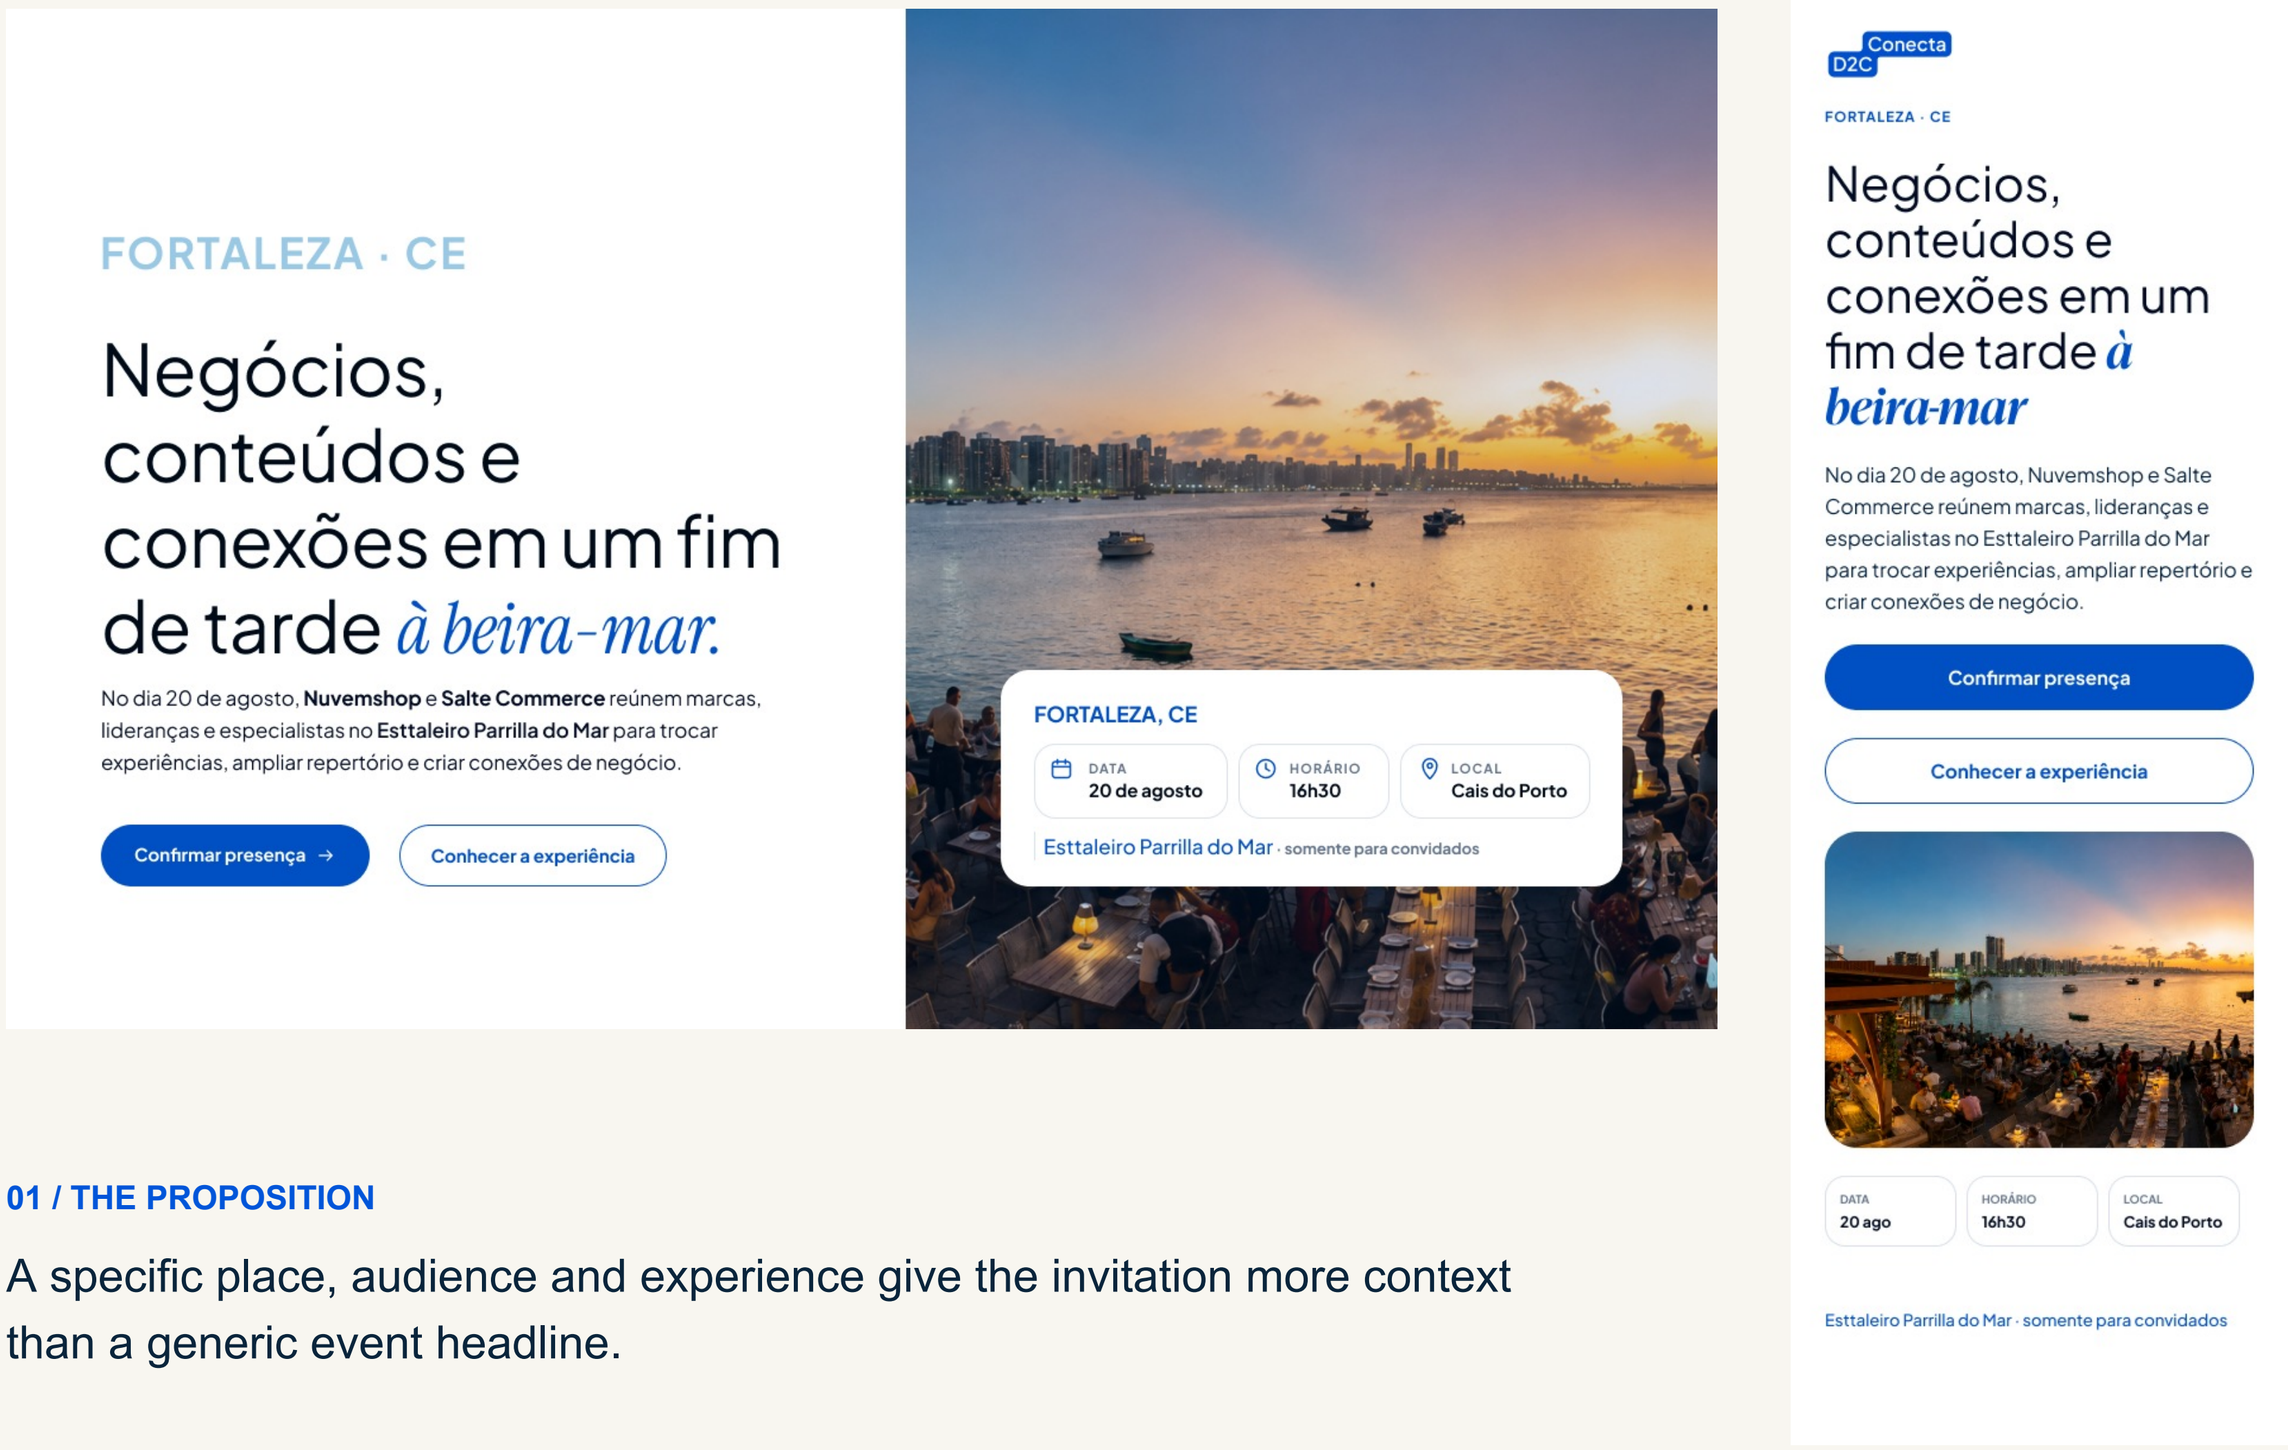

Present the event, its setting and participation details in a page people can understand quickly.

MY ROLE

Web design, copy refinement, responsive adaptation and implementation within Nuvemshop's existing visual identity.

Conecta D2C

Same information. A different reading order.

01 / THE PROPOSITION

A specific place, audience and experience give the invitation more context than a generic event headline.

02 / THE LOGISTICS

Date, time and location stay grouped. On mobile, the details follow the image in a compact row.

03 / THE ACTION

The main action and the option to explore the experience have different visual weight.

Conecta D2C

An invitation is a sequence.

01

Invitation

Explain why the event is relevant.

02

Registration

Make the participation status clear.

03

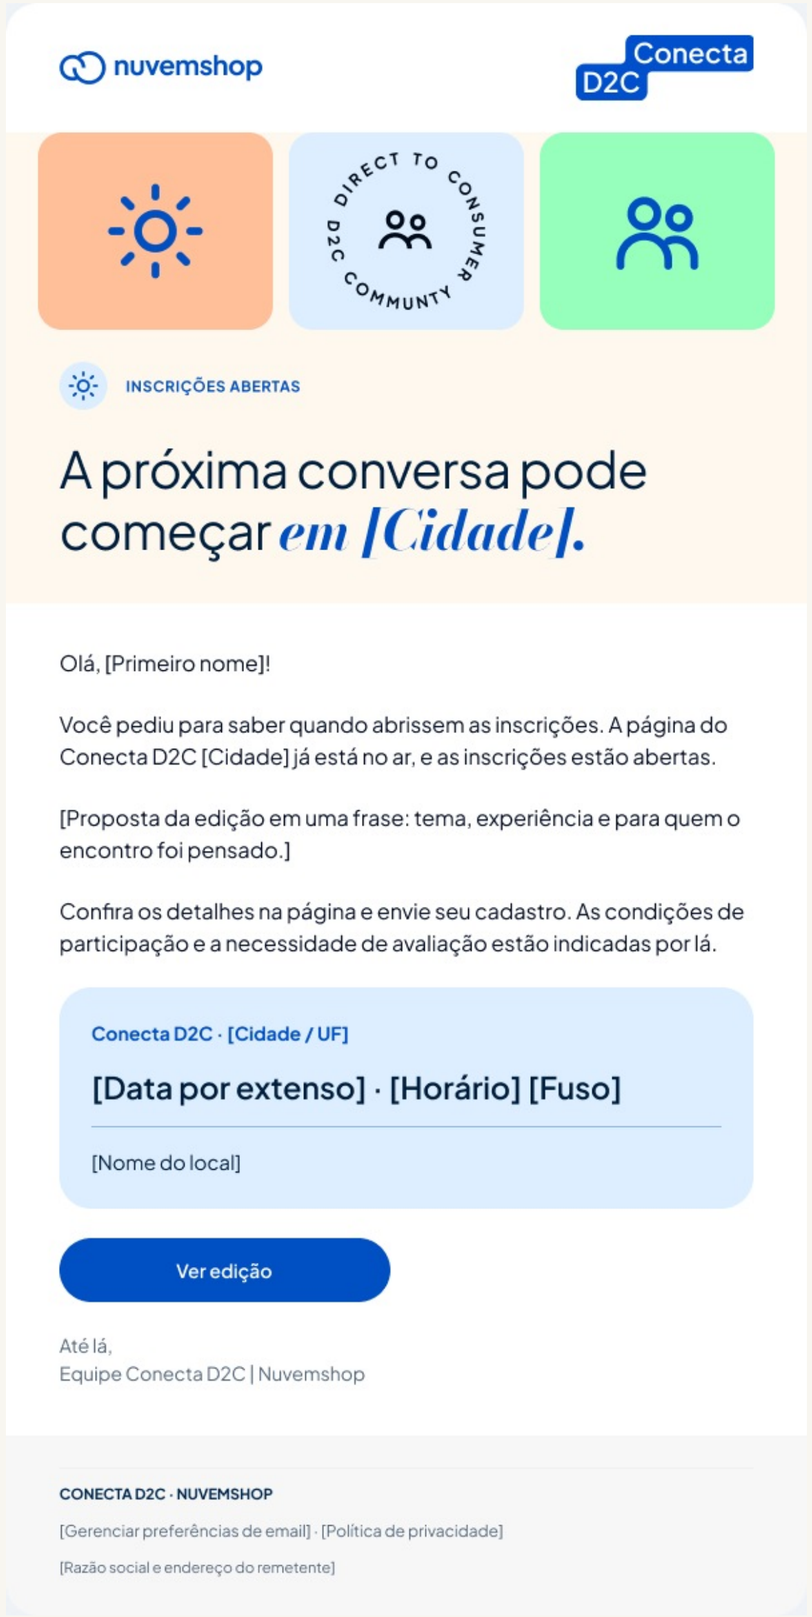

Reminder

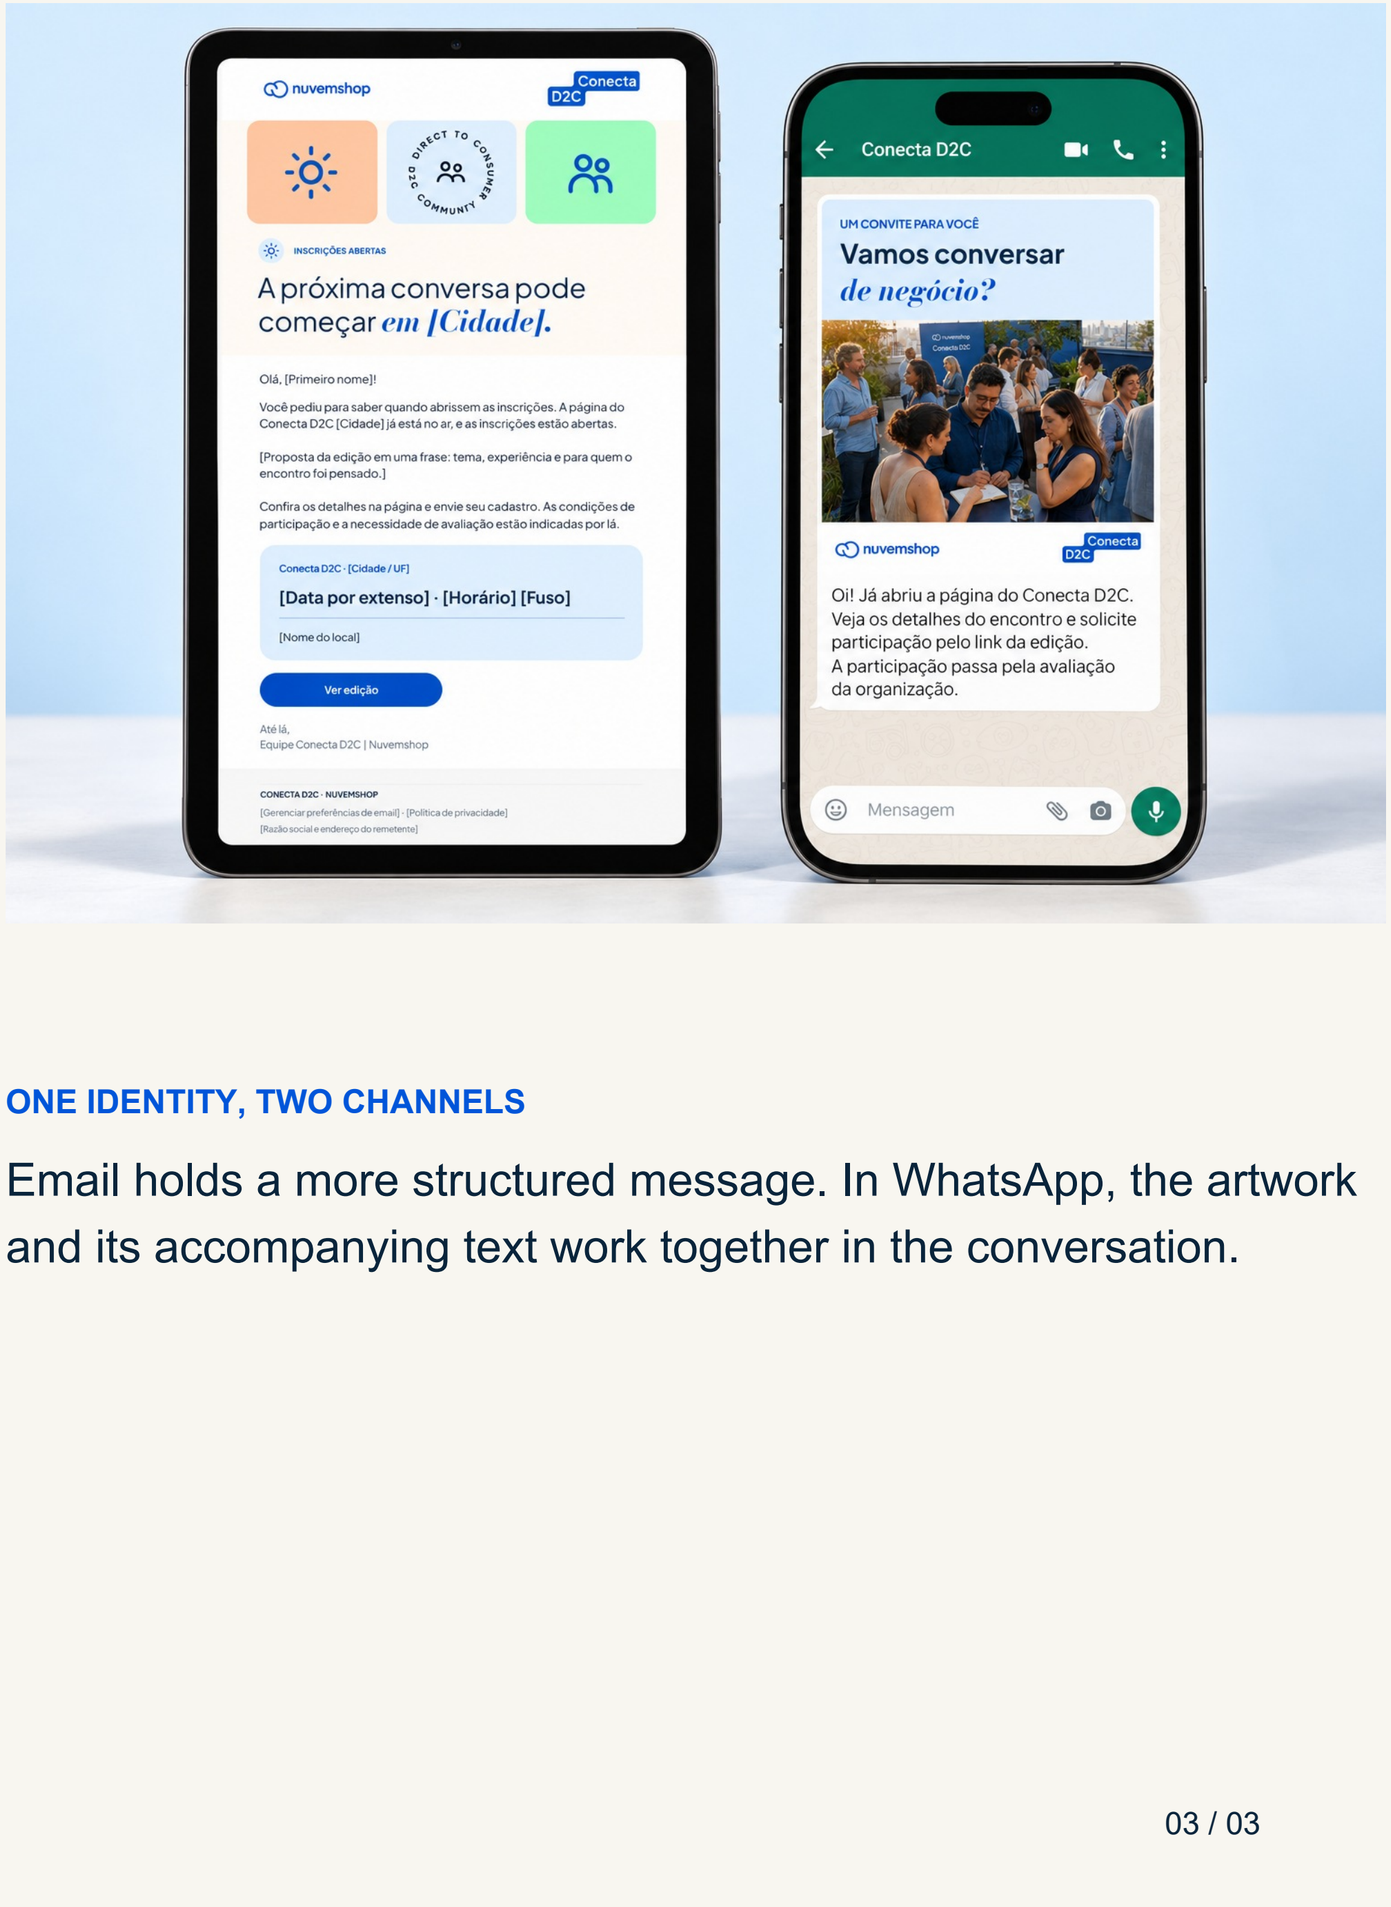

Help people plan their arrival.

04

Follow-up

Continue the conversation.

ONE IDENTITY, TWO CHANNELS

Email holds a more structured message. In WhatsApp, the artwork and its accompanying text work together in the conversation.
